

WEEK 1

DECODABLE WORDS
bright	show	straight	alone
please	great	family	time
TRICKY WORDS (PRICKLY SPELLINGS)
people people eat omelettes, people eat eggs or say it as 'pe - ople'	eye	whole (Make sure your child knows which meaning of the homophones this is.)
beautiful		parents

DICTIONARY SENTENCES
Eight apricots are placed on a plate. I cannot keep secrets. The tiger eyes shine in the moonlight. I get cold toes in the snow. The sly tiger smiles in the shadows.

WEEK 2

DECODABLE WORDS
useful	share	world	mouth
circle	true	about	where
TRICKY WORDS (PRICKLY SPELLINGS)
pr o ve	impr o ve	m o ve
their (Make sure your child knows which meaning of the homophones this is.)		through (Make sure your child knows which meaning of the homophones this is.)

DICTATION SENTENCES
Move your shoes to the music. This pair of bears share. The girl took her purse to work. Do not count the brown flowers. The blue bear drank the smooth juice.

Week 3

DECODABLE WORDS
before	chance	station	usual
explosion	talk	pitch	delicious
TRICKY WORDS (PRICKLY SPELLINGS)
thought		s ure Both phonemes in sure are tricky.
shoe	two (Make sure your child knows which meaning of the homophones this is.)	who

DICTIONARY SENTENCES
Popcorn spilled all over the floor. An explosion came from the television. There is so much ketchup on the table! The chef made me a delicious drink. The dinosaur was stuck in the kitchen.

Week 4

DECODABLE WORDS
badge	listen	castle	instead
colour	young	charge	mother
TRICKY WORDS (PRICKLY SPELLINGS)
because big elephants can always understand small elephants	once	pretty
any	many magpie ate nutty yoghurt

DICTATION SENTENCES
Wear a badge on your jumper. The horse rested by the fence. The wasp buzzed above my head. The gorilla found a caterpillar. My mother gave me a badge.

Week 5

DECODABLE WORDS
cities	sorry	reply	please
water	bread	basic	action
TRICKY WORDS (PRICKLY SPELLINGS)
friend 'fri' the 'end' of your friend	once	again a goat and insect nattering laugh Laugh has two phonemes that are tricky.

DICTATION SENTENCES
Untie the ponies so they can lie down. See the funny pink birds fly away. Full steam ahead to the seaside! Water the acorn so it grows. I was eating a tasty brownie for breakfast.